In Night's Deep Silence

Sharlene Wallace, harp
& George Koller, bass

Sharlene and George have been performing, recording and touring together since 1996. Their performances have included the 11th World Harp Congress (Vancouver, BC), Festival of the Sound (Parry Sound), International Divas III (Toronto) and Gananoque Concert Series. George plays on six of Sharlene's albums and produced and played on her harp and bass duo CD "In Night's Deep Silence". Playing original compositions, a flourish of Celtic tunes and music of South America, Sharlene and George create an exploratory, rhythmic and beautiful programme for harp and bass.

outstanding vocals, and one heck of a rhythm section! The only ones who may enjoy the music more than the audience are the band members themselves. James Ryce and Top Shelf do their best to perform every song as if it were the band favorite (and since the band has so many songs they enjoy playing, that is pretty much always the case).
